Change Description:

COTSWORKS is identifying and qualifying alternate sources of supply for the optical sub-assembly (OSA) components internal to the SFB-M and SFB-G product lines. Once qualified, these alternate components will not change the optical performance specifications of any products listed within this document as listed on the datasheets available at the time of this PCN.

All customers should contact their COTSWORKS account manager for further information and to discuss procurement of the current sub-assembly component for secure storage and selective use for periods after December 2021.
